

DOMENICO PULITANO' Esq.
CRIMINAL LAW PROFESSOR
MILAN – BICOCCA UNIVERSITY

Ettore Parlato Spadafora, Esq.
Head of Legal Affairs
Banca Mediolanum S.p.a.
Palazzo Meucci, Via F. Sforza, Milano 3
20080 Basiglio – Milan

Sent via email to: ettore.parlato@mediolanum.it

Milan, April 9, 2009

Re.: Mr. Paolo Sciumè's release from home detention

Dear Parlato,

Further to my letter of last March 13, I hereby inform you that Mr. Paolo Sciumé was released from home detention by order dated April 6, 2009 issued by the Judge for Preliminary Investigations of the Court of Palermo L. Petrucci.

In his order, that you will find attached hereto, the Judge recognises at present there is no reason for the precautionary measure and appreciates Mr. Sciumè's behaviour during the application of said measure.

Yours Sincerely
signed
Prof. Domenico Pulitanò, Esq.

Notice of Crime Register - File No. 12600/06
Judges for Preliminary Investigations Register - File No. 4572/07

COURT OF PALERMO
Division of Justices for Preliminary Investigations

ORDER
release from home detention

Judge Luigi Petrucci

In relation to the request for release from home detention submitted in the interest of

SCIUME' PAOLO, born on January 31, 1943

Whereas the Public Prosecutor has expressed his favourable opinion

Whereas the time is about to expire in appreciation of the appellant's behaviour during the application of the precautionary measure and considering the reasons for the precautionary measure no longer exist

NOW

Pursuant to section 299 of the Code of Criminal Procedure

The precautionary measure of home detention applied to SCIUME' Paolo is hereby revoked and, if not subject to detainment for other reasons, the appellant is released.

Notice be given

Palermo. April 6, 2009

The Judge for Preliminary Investigations
signed
Luigi Petrucci

Lodged with the Court's Clerk
Palermo April 6, 2009

The Court's Clerk (B3)
signed
Annamaria Giunta